

MASTER OF KNOX COLLEGE

The Council of Knox College and Salmond College is looking for a new Head of Knox College.

Knox College is a residential college affiliated to the University of Otago and accommodates approximately 260 undergraduate and postgraduate students. The College is 105 years old and is one of the University's best-known colleges. It is owned and operated in close association with its sister, Salmond College, by the Presbyterian Church of Aotearoa New Zealand.

This is a rare opportunity for an enthusiastic, practical and experienced leader to manage a multi-disciplined organisation, helping students to balance the academic, cultural and social aspects of University life. This is a full-time, permanent and live-in position. Housing is provided.

To be successful in this role you will need to have:

- Significant management experience at a senior level;
- Strong leadership skills with ability to guide and motivate a diverse team of staff and students;
- Highly developed communication and interpersonal skills;
- The ability to inspire young adults and win their respect and confidence;
- The experience and personal skills to respond appropriately to the complex needs of young adults living away from home for the first time;
- Strong financial and commercial acumen;
- An ability to plan and coordinate staff and resources to meet strategic goals; and
- An understanding of and willingness to work within the ethos and values of the Presbyterian Church.

A relevant tertiary qualification, a high level of professionalism and integrity, as well as experience working with young adults are essential.

A position description is available on request. Please apply with a CV and covering letter addressing essential qualities to Jane Milloy at nzvacancy@deloitte.co.nz.

Applications close on Wednesday 8 October 2014.
