Work to become a Kids Friendly Church

Kids Friendly Network members receive:

- Kids Friendly news including the seasonal “Hands On” newsletter and email news of ideas, resources and events.
- Invitations to Kids Friendly events.
- Advice (email and telephone) on Kids Friendly issues and requirements eg safety protocol and policy, including children in worship, community outreach, curriculum, employment etc.
- Kids Friendly Resource Manual including Safety in Children’s Ministry, Employing a Children’s Ministry Worker, Kids Friendly Ideals and Self-Review and other resources as they are developed.

Churches working to become “Kids Friendly” agree to a process that includes/requires:

- A Kids Friendly presentation to the session/parish council
- A commitment by the minister, children’s ministry worker and session clerk to work through the “Kids Friendly Ideals and Self-Review” document , to set Kids Friendly goals, complete the self-review form and sign the Kids Friendly Pledge.
- A Kids Friendly assessment meeting with the Kids Friendly Coach.
- Coaching meetings with the Kids Friendly Coach (of up to 2 hours each) to facilitate churches meet goals identified through the self review process.
- A willingness to brand our church Kids Friendly through the use of signage and logos once we have been assessed “Kids Friendly” by the Kids Friendly consultant.
- A commitment to mentor an aspiring Kids Friendly church once we are branded Kids Friendly.
- A willingness to share our resources and ideas with other churches.
