

Hospital Chaplain Waitemata District Health Board

A position has become available at North Shore Hospital for an Ecumenical Hospital Chaplain. Applications are being sought from experienced chaplains and other suitably qualified ordained clergy for this permanent full time Hospital Chaplaincy position.

The ability to provide Christian ministry and spiritual care to people with a range of health needs, from a variety of cultural and religious backgrounds, and to participate in a multi-disciplinary health care team, operating in ways consistent with the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi, is required. The successful applicant will be an excellent communicator and team player.

The incumbent will work with local clergy and will also be expected to train and supervise voluntary chaplaincy assistants and will be responsible for raising awareness of the nature and importance of spiritual care in a hospital setting.

Applicants should have completed a degree or equivalent qualification in theology or ministry, and should ideally have completed a minimum of one Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) course and have at least 3 years' Full-time experience in hospital chaplaincy, parish or other relevant ministry positions.
