

Mission Advisor

Presbyterian Synod of Otago & Southland and Southern Presbytery

Due to the retirement of the current Mission Advisor, the Synod and Southern Presbytery are seeking an experienced Christian leader to take up the position of Mission Advisor. This is a Christian leadership role to help and support church leaders with mission in parish life.

Mission Advisor Key Tasks

1. With other Synod field team members, advance the mission goals of the Synod and the Southern Presbytery.
2. Work with congregations and their leaders in developing their mission.
3. In association with the Southern Presbytery, assist in identifying and advancing key mission objectives in the Synod/Presbytery region.
4. Assist in training and developing of key mission leaders.

Because the mission environment is changing quickly, these key tasks will be re-evaluated regularly.

Other Requirements:

5. The responsibilities of the position do not include crisis management, which should be referred to the Presbytery who will address the issues.
6. A major focus over the next few years will be working with the joint Synod Southern Presbytery Mission & Property Workgroup to help parishes develop their mission in relation to engineer's earthquake building reports and related issues.
7. The Mission Advisor, along with other Synod staff, will be invited by the Southern Presbytery to become a member of the Presbytery and an Associate Member of the Presbytery Council to whom they will report as needed.

The position is full time.
