

PCANZ

Your PCANZ Ambassador

Since October 2022, Rev Hana Popea is the PCANZ White Ribbon Ambassador. She's been in parish ministry for 17 years and is minister at St Ninian's Uniting Church Karori, Wellington. Born in Samoa, Hana is a wife and mother. Read more about Hana on the PCANZ website.

WHITE RIBBON RESOURCES

"We have many people in our parishes working and volunteering with community organisations that seek to prevent violence towards women and children. Let's connect with each other, with other churches and cultures, with White Ribbon, so we can all access and share training and resources."

Contact Hana to find out how she can work with you and your parish in preventing family violence.

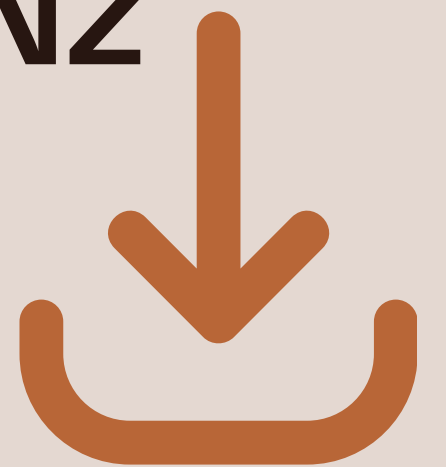

PCANZ WHITE RIBBON VIDEOS

Ambassador Rev Hana Popea has recorded zoom video calls with Presbyterians asking three questions on what Presbyterians think could or does stop or prevent domestic and family violence towards women and children.

<https://vimeo.com/channels/pcanzwhiteribbon>

Download PCANZ White Ribbon resources

- Video resources
- Worship resources
- Information & stats
- Messages from the Ambassador

www.presbyterian.org.nz/speaking-out/pcanz-white-ribbon

PCANZ Family Violence info

The PCANZ website 'Family Violence' information page has resources and contacts for organisations, including White Ribbon, that can help in family violence situations.

www.presbyterian.org.nz/speaking-out/what-we-believe/family-violence

Contact the PCANZ White Ribbon Ambassador

hanapd.pcanzwrnza@gmail.com