

22 January 2016

REV. WAYNE MATHESON

General Secretary
Presbyterian Church of Aotearoa New Zealand

Dear Rev. Matheson,

Warm greetings from the Council for World Mission (CWM) Global office in Singapore.

We are pleased to announce that the CWM Special Academic Accompaniment Programme (SAAP) is now accepting applications for Academic Year 2016-2017.

The CWM, through the SAAP, aims to facilitate advanced learning within and between our members by offering opportunities to gain further education in other contexts. This aims to promote academic excellence in theological education in renowned institutions. CWM is offering support for the following:

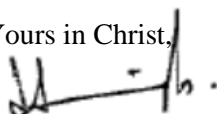

Tainan Theological College and Seminary (TTCS) Taiwan	Masters in Theology (English) course in one (1) year
Protestant Theological University (PThU) Netherlands	Masters in Theology degree in one (1) year Doctorate degree in four (4) years in split locations (PThU and home country) wherein students will spend the following time at PThU campus: Year 1 – nine (9) months; Year 3 – two (2) weeks; and Year 4 – four (4) weeks
University of KwaZulu-Natal (UKZN) South Africa	Masters in Theology degree in one (1) year Doctorate degree in four (4) years in split locations (UKZN and home country) wherein students will spend the following at UKZN campus: Year 1 – six (6) months; Year 3 – two (2) weeks; and Year 4 – six (6) months

Please find attached application documents. Interested applicants must submit English Proficiency Assessment Certificate (for PThU) for it to be considered. Please send accomplished application form and other requirements as stated in Part-D of the form, to (email:) empowerment@cwmission.org on or before 29th February 2016. Only those applications with complete documents will be processed.

All SAAP applications must be in accordance with Member-church's long term Capacity Development Plan.

Please feel free to contact us for your questions and/or clarifications.

Yours in Christ,

SUDIPTA SINGH

Programme Secretary
Empowerment and Training

CWM LTD