

Are you a woman of vision who wishes to serve God and likes a challenge?

Presbyterian Women Aotearoa New Zealand (PWANZ) agreed in September 2015 that it was time to move forward, restructure and rebrand for a new generation of women. Its vision is to create pathways to promote women around 50 years or younger including Pacific Island, Asian, migrant and rural women to be empowered to be active in leadership and mission. PWANZ is seeking a dynamic woman in this younger age group to be the Coordinator of the Transition Team until September 2016.

Over the following months the Coordinator will consult with younger women across the regions as to how “in their way” the Church might engage with them to realise their full potential for leadership, mission and growth. The Transition Team will continue to fulfill the advocacy role of the United Nations Commission for the Status of Women and the role in (Overseas) Mission.

The Transition Team operates until September 2016. The Coordinator’s role at present is a voluntary one.

Is God putting this exciting challenge to you? If so, - request a Job Description now from Heather Tate hvtate@vodafone.co.nz
It’s important to have a Coordinator in place by mid February.

Heather Tate PWANZ Advisory Team Convener.