

Going Global India

November 17 – December 3 2015

What is Going Global India?

Going Global 2015 is an exciting opportunity for young adults (18-30) from the Presbyterian Church of Aotearoa New Zealand to connect with their peers in India, through the partnership that the PCANZ has with the Church of North India (CNI).

The Aims:

The aim of Going Global India is to educate, motivate, encourage, and inspire:

1. To educate participants about the long and proud history of PCANZ mission in India; and give insights into the mission context in India today.
2. To motivate team members to learn about the riches of cross-cultural engagement and to participate in cross-cultural mission.
3. To encourage them to broaden their understanding of mission and respond to the call of God in their lives.
4. To inspire them to serve in mission, whether that be in New Zealand or wherever God leads.

The Programme:

Participants will learn about the extensive history of mission that exists between the Presbyterian Church of Aotearoa New Zealand and the Church of North India, and how that can be honoured and extended through their involvement. They will also visit new projects being supported by PCANZ members. In each location the team will be welcomed and hosted by members of the local Indian Christian community.

The Places:

The trip will start in New Delhi, followed by visits to the Christian Hospital and School of Nursing in Jagadhri, and the Christian Medical College in Ludhiana; the CNI community in Chandigarh; and CNI Schools in Pathankot (Northern Punjab) and Palampur (Himachal Pradesh, in the foothills of the Himalayas). The trip will conclude with a visit to the stunning Taj Mahal in Agra.

Serving in Mission:

As with most mission trips, serving others will play an important part. While much of the trip will include observing and learning, participants will need to show mature Christian leadership and will be expected to serve in various ways. This will involve teaching opportunities, faith sharing and worship throughout the course of the trip. Young adults with training or interest in medicine and education will find this trip particularly valuable; however, any young adult with an interest in cross-cultural mission is welcome to apply.

Cost

Cost of the trip is $3,300, including NZ domestic flights. This figure may come down depending on the cost of flights, and subsidies.

CONSENT TO DISCLOSURE (for a New Zealand Police Vet Check)

- for further information, see <http://www.police.govt.nz/advice/businesses-and-organisations/vetting>

I acknowledge and understand as follows:

1. The information about me that NZ Police may consider relevant to my application and release in vetting comprises any conviction history and, for certain agencies, infringement/demerit reports; and it may include other information such as active charges and warrants to arrest, any information received or obtained by NZ Police, and any interaction I have had with NZ Police in any context (including family violence), even where I have not been charged, or charges are withdrawn, or I have been acquitted (not guilty) of a charge, or I have been discharged without conviction.
2. Any conviction history will be released in accordance with the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004; this means that, if I am 'eligible' for clean slate (e.g. no convictions for 7 years, never been to prison, no convictions for specified sexual offending, etc – see section 7 of the Act):
 - a) my criminal record of convictions will not be disclosed; but
 - b) if the role for which I have applied is an exception to the clean slate scheme (e.g. predominantly involving care and protection of a child or young person), my criminal record of convictions will be disclosed.
3. When releasing information to non-government Approved Agencies, Police may release the fact, without details, that suppressed information exists in relation to any conviction and, where NZ Police considers it relevant and justified, in relation to any current or past charge however it was resolved (e.g. withdrawn, discharged, acquitted).
4. Where NZ Police holds relevant information that it is unwilling to disclose to the Approved Agency for privacy, confidentiality or law enforcement reasons, NZ Police may recommend against unsupervised access to children or vulnerable persons (this is known as a 'red stamp').
5. The personal information I provide in this form is being collected for vetting purposes, and may also be used for the purpose of updating NZ Police records.
6. I may withdraw this consent, prior to Police's disclosure of the vetting result, by notifying the Approved Agency who will immediately notify NZ Police to cease the vetting process.
7. I am entitled to access the vetting result released to the Approved Agency and seek correction of Police information about me in accordance with the Privacy Act 1993. By making a request to the 'Approved Agency' within 20 working days of submitting this 'Request and Consent' form.
8. No later than three months after the conclusion of the vetting process, the Approved Agency will securely dispose of this consent form and copies of identification documents, as well as the vetting result released by NZ Police, in accordance with the Privacy Act 1993 or, if applicable, the Public Records Act 2005 or any other enactment.
9. The information I have provided in this form relates to me and is correct.

Authorisation

I authorise NZ Police to disclose any personal information it considers relevant to my application (as described above) to the Approved Agency making this request for the purpose of assessing my suitability.

Additional Authorisation [cross out or strike through this additional authorisation below if not applicable]

Where the Approved Agency requesting a vet is a NZ Police business group (e.g. vetting for contractors to NZ Police; workers at major security events)

I also authorise:

- NZ Police to disclose the information on this form to, and access information from, other government agencies;
- and
- NZ Police to disclose to my employer or other relevant agency its assessment regarding my suitability (only to the extent that I am approved or not approved as suitable, without reasons).
