

How to be involved with Global Mission...

Mission today is discerning where the Spirit of God is working and joining in...

Be informed...

- Keep up to date by reading the Global Mission section in the last pages in Spanz magazine and monthly in Bush Telegraph
- Link in to the Global Mission pages on the PCANZ web site: www.presbyterian.org.nz
- Contact Pamela Tankersley, Global Mission Coordinator on pamela@presbyterian.org.nz or mobile 0274910677
- Read up about the Myanmar Partnership and contact Angela Norton at the St Columba Botany web site: Myanmar www.stcolumba.org.nz/how-we-help/myanmar2
- Ask your local Presbyterian Women (APW) what mission projects they are working on
- See www.unitingworld.org.au for info from our partner church, Uniting Church in Australia
- Subscribe to the Friends of Jagadhri newsletter, contact Rev Doreen Riddell at doreen@vodafone.co.nz
- Keep up with Christian World Service news and web site www.cws.org.nz

Participate – contact Pamela@presbyterian.org.nz for more information

- Continually provide focus for your congregations on Global Mission (particularly on Global Mission Sunday, October 2. 2012). Does your congregation have a Mission Committee/Board? Why not create one!
- Invite the Global Mission Coordinator to talk to your Presbytery, Congregation, Mission Group, Women's Group
- Make a Pilgrimage of Hope trip to Myanmar – or support others who are doing so
- Join the projects in Vanuatu: Kids Connecting, Tri-nations tournament at Onesua High School
- Provide scholarships for and make relationships with school students, nursing students, theology students, ministry students, in Vanuatu
- Participate in a work project to Vanuatu – with an Island community
- Become a host church to our many Pacific and Asian diaspora churches and communities
- Offer a gift of time and your unique skills to our partner churches (Vanuatu, North India, Myanmar, Pacific...Asia...)
- Become involved in the Presbyterian Women/ Methodist Women annual project (this year Maternal Health in Palestine)
- Apply through the Uniting World (see Uniting World website under "Experience") for many more opportunities
- Take up some of the on-line training opportunities offered by Uniting World Experience programme
- Host visitors from our Partner churches - for example leadership of Myanmar Presbyterian Church before/after our General Assembly, support a Vanuatu Pastor with Seasonal Workers