

CWM in search of senior management team

Established in 1977 out of the former London Missionary Society, the Council for World Mission (CWM) is today a worldwide partnership of 31 churches in mission representing 15 million Christian believers spanning six regions across the globe. CWM is currently undergoing its most far-reaching change since its inception, with a new focus on people, addressing critical issues anew and at the same time relocating its Secretariat from London to Singapore. We urgently seek dynamic individuals to join our senior management team at this exciting time of change, to take CWM to the next level of meeting mission challenges in the future.

- Deputy General Secretary
- Programme Secretary, Empowerment and Training
- Programme Secretary, Reflection and Research
- Finance Secretary

These are leadership positions for which an ability to think strategically, lead people and manage resources is necessary. In addition to being a practicing Christian, a commitment to Christian mission, ecumenism and the work of CWM is essential. For further information on the roles and requirements, please see the respective job descriptions and competency framework in the information pack.

To apply, please complete the application form and email it to the General Secretary at recruitment@cwmission.org no later than 31 December 2011.
