

Te Rongopai

200 Years of the Gospel
in New Zealand
1814-2014

65 minute DVD, in 5 chapters

Historian Dr Stuart Lange presents a five part series documenting the story of the Gospel in New Zealand from Samuel Marsden forwards - its impact, the complications, and the way Christianity has had a significant impact in shaping New Zealand society both then and now.

“History that lives. An essential part of the New Zealand story. A rare combination of excellent story-telling and sound scholarship.”

Professor Paul Moon (historian)

“Fascinating. An extremely useful resource. I highly recommend it.”

Rev. Dr. Richard Waugh

(Chair of National Church Leaders)
