The New Zealand Branch of the Interim Ministry Network(US)
is facilitating a training event for:

TRANSITIONAL MINISTRY

A training event for those interested in developing skills for an intentional ministry during that period between the departure of one minister and the arrival of the next minister or ministry team.

Phase 1:
21-25 September 2015
Phase 3:
Auckland - Date to be advised

TRANSITIONAL MINISTRY: A BRIDGE BETWEEN THE PAST AND FUTURE:

The transitional period in the life of a congregation is an excellent opportunity for it to reflect and review its past; to find meaning in its heritage and history; to explore its current identity; to celebrate the gifts, skills and ministries already being exercised within the congregation; and a time to envision and discern God's call for its future in a proactive way.

The course is made up of three phases:

Phase 1: This is a week long intensive where theory is taught.

Phase 2: Consists of a supervised and monitored fieldwork project which can be carried out in your particular ministry setting. This project will continue to develop the participants' skills, knowledge and personal awareness. Your learning outcomes will form the basis for a fifteen to twenty minute presentation in phase three. You will also be required to submit two critical incident reports.

Phase 3: This is usually at least six months after phase 1 and is another week long intensive (this may finish on Thursday depending on the number of participants). Participants do their presentations, reports are processed in small groups and additional theory is taught.

We will negotiate the dates for phase 3

Each day begins at 8.30am and concludes at 8.30pm

It is important participants commit to all three phases of the training.

Wednesday evening is a free night for participants to visit friends, go to movie etc. The evening meal is provided.
